

Best Practices

All the activities of the institution led to the growth of the college in recent year providing excellent growth oriented academic environment for the faculty. The growth of the institution and their personal growth as well to ensure effective teaching learning, students are actively involved in the project learning brainstorming sessions constructive strategies academic activities research, innovation in teaching/Learning & co-curricular activities conducted during the year.

Personal Growth of Faculty

Extra Co-Curricular Activates

Society Well-Being

